GIRL COMBINE MARKS THEATRICAL PROGRAMS

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.

of "Come to Bohemia," "The Quaker Girl, "Adele," and other recent successes. Miss Alt will offer a repertoire of new exclusive songs, and also, as encores, a number of her earlier hits. Another exceptional number will be the original actor of "Mawrss" in the Mon-tague Glass "Perimutter" comedy. He is Julius Tannen, formerly a great favor-ite in Keith vaudeville in his "Chatter-to in Keith vaudevine in his Chatter-box" monologue. He is again traveling the two-a-day in the same role with en-tirely new material for the mirth menu. Then there will be those blackface sa-tirists of actors on and off the stage, Ed Flanagan and Neely Edwards, who will present a revamped version of their big-gest fun-hit, "Off and On." Charles Cartmell and Laura Harris should catch popular fancy with "Golfing with Cupid." Other numbers will be the Mirano brothers, as the flying torpedoes; Lewis and White in a little song and dance affair; the Three Bobs as "The Jovial Jugglers;" the pipe organ recitals, and the Hears International news pictorial.

-"The Millionaire's Son an the Shop Girl."

Laughs, thrills, and tears galore are promised in "The Millionaire's Son and the Shop Giri," a melodrama by W. C. Herman, which will be the offering of the International circuit at Poli's Theater beginning tonight at 8:15 o'clock and continuing through the week with matinees Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday. Believing that the vice play is out of place on the American stage, George place on the American stage, deorge Klimt, the producer, has staged the pro-duction with a view of developing the brighter and better side of things. The play tells the story of a young shop girl, who in her endeavor to overcome the handicap of her early environ-ment, is obliged to fight her way over many obstacles and adhere rigidly to the paths of virtue. She is inherently good, however, and triumphs in the end, after four thrilling acts in which the story is She has attracted the attention of the young son of her millionaire employ-er, and his interest deepens into love for the girl. She returns his love, but there is stern opposition on the part of the father, and he leaves nothing undone to separate the young couple. Katie's love for the young man is so genuine and whole-hearted that she is ready to give him up rather than sacrifice his career e between him and his family, but her goodness of character and brav-ery in the face of all her trouble wins over the father to her side, and the play ends happily with the young lovers re-ceiving the father's blessing.

Gayety-Burlesque.

Although it is easily one of the most pretentious attractions on the Columbia circuit, "The Merry Rounders," which opens its week's engagement at the Gayety Theater today, does not depend alone upon its massive scenic settings and elaborate wardrobe for its prestige. Its cast contains the names of several of the foremost entertainers in burlesqu and these names alone are a sufficient guarantee of the quality of the enter-

Abe Reynolds heads the cast. His work is ably seconded by George F. Hayes, whose portrayal of rural characters has gained him a wide following. Acting as a foil to the wit of the comedians will be found Frank Ward, a promising juve nile. Eugene MacGregor is cast in straight roles. Of the female principals. Elleen Sheridan, an old favorite, is cast as prima donna. Elizabeth Jane. a newcomer in the ranks of burlesque, is the while Ruth Wesley, a winsome and dainty little miss, is cast as ingenue.

Cosmos-Vaudeville.

Cosmos Theater patrons this week will have a bill of continuous vaudewille with four headline attractions—
Willy Zimmerman, the international mimic and one of the marvels of the lect damages for injuries to a $110 stage, in reproductions of the great wooden leg? rulers of Europe and celebrated char-acters of the world; Mme. Jewel's Man-ployed by Burdett Lyon, asserts he is kins, one of the most elaborate acts entitled to the full value of the leg, rulers of Europe and celebrated char-acters of the world; Mme. Jewel's Manacting figures and twelve sets of scen-ery: Bessie Rempie and Company in a bright comedicta, "Cheating Cheat-era," but not a tabloid of the big play of that name, and Frozini, conceded to be the greatest living master of selections of the highest class. the plano-accordion, in a repertoire of Only a brief description of the piece is Supplemental attractions will in-lude a novel song and dancing trio, with unique costumes and exclusive songs; Work and Ower, in "A Diaton, a dainty couple of singers of exclusive songs, with beautiful gowns: been ga Philbrick and Devoie, in a musical romanti farce, "A Case of Soapine," with the usual film attractions, including both Enemy

Loew's Columbia-Irene Fenwick.

Irene Fenwick will be the pictured star at Loew's Columbia today, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, supported by Owen Moore, in "A Coney Island Princess," a Moore in "A Coney Island Princess," a picturization from the successful stage play, "The Princess Zim-Zim." Miss Fenwick will be remembered by theater-goers for her splendid success on the

That portion of the action which does not transpire in Coney Island has its setting in the polo fields. Fifth avenue manother rendezvous of Beginning Thursday and for the remainder of the week, Lenore Ulrich will be the star in "The Road to Love." The action takes place in Algeria. Hafsa, beautiful daughter of wealthy old Sidi Malik, and Gordon Roberts, a young American, are the principals. Gordon and the girl and the girl elope, but are captured. Hafsa bribes Abdallah to let her go in the caravan in which Gordon is kept drugged. When Gordon is about to escape, he recognizes Hafsa and demands that she go in his place. Karan finally yields to the girl and takes Gordon away. Hafsa is sold to an old sheik. On the wedding day Hafsa substitutes her maid for herself and escapes with Gordon. Under the of the faithful Karan, lovers depart across the desert on the Moore's Strand-E. H. Sothern.

E. H. Sothern, who has formally said farewell to Washington theater-goers as a dramatic star, will hold the screen to-day and until Thursday at Moore's Strnd Theater as the stellar feature of a de luxe program in a visualization of to the King," by the late R. N. Stephens.

CONCERTS AND LECTURES

Burton Holmes' Lecture.

Burton Holmes has chosen for his travelogue to be given at the New Na-tional Theater tonight, one which permits him the widest possible latitude in photography and interesting talking points:
"Imperial Britain" suggests a world-wide tour and to visualize such a tour Mr.
Holmes brings forward the most unique collection of beautifully and truthfully colored lantern slides and the most unique and realistic series of motion picunique and realistic series of motion pic-tures which even he has ever shown.

In no other one travelogue has he ever shown such a wealth of photographic achievement or taken his audiences to so many places abounding in such peculiarly varied interest.

For the fourth travelogue of his series in the Capital next Sunday night at the New National Theater, Burton Holmes will use as his subject, "The German Fatherland." Far and wide Mr. Holmes journeyed in Germany and this travel-ogue presents a comprehensive survey as the traveler saw it, and gives to those who never saw it a vivid conception of the homeland of the German people.

With Alma Gluck as the soloist, the Philadelphia Orchestra will give its sec-ond concert of the season at the New National Theater the afternoon of Tuesday. December 12, under the leadership of Leopold Stokowski. Mme. Gluck duplicated her New York triumphs on her first concert tour, and during recent seasons has been one of st sought-after artists in the concert field A program of unusual excellence has been arranged for the second concert.

Next Friday afternoon at the New National Theater Anna Case will be heard as the artist in the fourth concert of the "Ten-Star Series," a musical event that promises to be one of the gems of the sea-

Her versatility is another characteristic. One moment she sings one of the most brilliant florid arias and the next a sustained selection with emotion and feeling that brings tears to the eyes of her hearers. Her program here will be widely varied and interesting.

The New York Symphony Orchestre will begin its series of three concerts next Tuesday at 4:30 at Belasco Theater with Walter Dumrosch, conductor. Mr. Damrosch and his orchestra are welcome additions to the musical offerings of Washington and each year's appearance strengthens his hold on his large numbers of admirers. The soloist for the occasion will be Mr. Harold Bauer, the master planist. Mr. Bauer hardly needs an introduction to Washington. This being his sixth appearance here and eighth tour of the States. Symphonic Variations for plan by Caesar Franck will be the solo num ber of the program.

The program follows: Symphony, No. 5, "Lenore"....

phony, No.).

1. Allegro.

2. Andante quast lerghetto.

3. Marsch-tempo.

4. Allegro.

mphonic Foem, "Les Djinns," for piano and Caesar Frant Harold Baner.
Symphonic Variations, for piano and rochestra

Harold Bauer.

Arrival platform humlet, (a) Arrival platform humlet, (b) Gay but wistful, (c) "The gumsuckers" march.

IRENE FRANKLIN STARS.

Former Vaudeville Favorite Appea in "The Melting of Molly."

From the vaudeville stage Irene Frank Lyceam—Burlesque.

A program so diversified that it will please the most captious is said to be provided by "The Night Owls Company" which opens its engagement at the Lyseum Theater today. The hypothesis are larger to the comedy drama field in "The Melting of Molly," in which she opened at the Garrick Theater, Detroit, Nov. 13. The piece is by Maria Thompson Daviess. lin transferred her gifts of song and mim which opens its engagement at the Lyceum Theater today. Two buriettas are presented, the first being entitled "Fun In a Railroad Station," and the second, "The Race at Saratoga." Another attraction to be introduced is "Poses de Art," in which twenty artists' models are to be seen in living reproduction, of such famous paintings as "The Slave Mart," "The Angelus," etc.

The large cast is headed by Mabel Le Monier and George Webb, while a score of shapely and talented girls compose the chorus. Among the musical numbers are such recent "hits" as "The Spooky Girl" and "A Real Guy."

So long had Miss Franklin been associated with the two-a-day that the audience failed to recognize her as a comedy star until she began singing a humorous song. "Grandma, Dear Grandma."

There is a slight story in the comedy, dealing with a self-sacrificing heroine who tries to reduce her plumpness before the "Boat Song" and "Mammy's Lullaby."

A lecture, "Personal Recollections of Edward Macdowell." with piano illustrations will be given tonight by Mrs. Emma Porall Knorr, at the Arts Club.

Mrs. Raymond Dicky, violinist; Miss Ethel Noble Johnson, soprano, and the Masurgia and Raymond VanSickle. and Raymond VanSickle.

IS A WOODEN LEG A LEG?

Danville, Ill., Dec. 2.-Can a man col-of its kind ever offered, with sixty hospital fees and pay for three weeks while he was waiting for a new limb.

Lyon says not, The courts will be asked to determine whether the Employers' Liability act of Illinois applies to wooden necessary, for most playgoers are famil-iar with this intensely interesting roman-tic drama. It tells the story of a prin-cess of old France, who to save her father from prison, seeks to deliver to the king a certain young outlaw who has been declared a public enemy.

Mr. Sothern's fame as a stage star has

Mr. Sothern's fame as a stage star has been gained by his portrayal of dashing, been gained by his portrayar or romantic roles, and he is thoroughly at home as the debonair outlaw Enemy to the King." Edith Edith usual film attractions, including both the Pathe and the Selig-Tribune latest news pictures, cartoon comedies and a big photoplay production shown only at 1, 4:45 and 10:15 p. m. daily.

Today's performances, starting at 3 p. m., will present all of last week's attractions.

Edith Storey, ling Tuesday night, when Miss Louise Van Wagenen, soprano; Mr. Morsell, Mr. Frank Duggan and Mr. Jarvis and Miss Alwarda Duggan and Mr. Jarvis and Miss Alwarda Casselman, accompanist, gave the program of character songs, Miss Van Wagenen in Mr. Horself was heard in a group of character songs, Miss Van Wagenen, soprano; Mr. Morsell was heard in a group of character songs, Miss Van Wagenen in Mr. Horself was heard in a group of character songs, Miss Van Wagenen in Mr. Horself was heard in a group of character songs, Miss Van Wagenen in Mr. Horself was heard in a group of character songs, Miss Van Wagenen in Mr. Horself was heard in a group of character songs, Miss Van Wagenen in Mr. Horself was heard in a group of character songs, Miss Van Wagenen in Mr. Horself was heard in Mr. Horself was heard in a group of character songs, Miss Van Wagenen in Mr. Horself was heard in Rialto Theater, New York, where it was well received by both public and press On Friday and Saturday Harold Lock-wood and May Allison will be featured "Big Tremaine," picturized from the novel bearing the same title by Marie Van Vorst. The daily program will be aug-mented with other picture attractions and Moore's Garden-W. S. Hart.

Strand Symphony Orchestra.

William S. Hart, beloved by theatergoers for his delineation of strong, rug-ged Western types, will headline the pro-gram at Moore's Garden Theater today, Monday and Tuesday in a vivid and breezy photo-drama, "The Return Draw Egan." "Draw Egan" is the nick name of a notorious bad man of the min-ing district for whose capture a reward "$1,000, dead or alive," has been offered. In a word the photoplay is ties that have made Mr. Hart such a fa-vorite, and the supporting company in-cludes Louise Glaum, as the girl of the underworld: Robert McKim, Margery Wilson, Charles K. French, and others.
On Wednesday and Thursday Lillian Walker and a company of expert Vita-graph players will be seen in a brand new film drama, "The Dollar and the Law," with scenario from the facile pen Law," with scenario from the facile of Irvin Cobb, traveler and novelist. "Jim Grimsby's Boy," a gripping story

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

A harpsichord recital by Miss Frances Pelton-Jones was given this week before the members and guests of the "Friday Morning Music Club." Miss Pelton-Jones charmed with her numbers, which were most effectively given on the harpschord.
The program included a contrapuntal group, early Italian, Elizabethan, descriptive pieces, and early dance forms.
The works of Bach, Handel, Haydn, Dr.

An attractive musical program was given Tuesday night at the "Grand Visitation" to the Bethlehem Chapter No. 7, O. E. S., by Mrs. Gertrude Lyons, soprano, and Mrs. Samuel V. Gusak, violinist, with Miss Elsie Weaver, accompanist. Mrs. Gusak played the "Mazurtka" by Miynaski, and responded with Gran Postlude: "Minuet Gothlique" the direction of Dr. William R. Buchanan, with Mr. Robeson at the organ.

Morning services—Organ prelude "Priere a Notre Dame" (Gothic Suile): Boellinist, with Miss Elsie Weaver, accompanist. Mrs. Gusak played the "Mazurtka" by Miynaski, and responded with Gran Postlude: "Minuet Gothlique" (Gothic suite)—Boellinist, Gothic suite)—Boellinist, Gothic suite)—Boellinist, Gothic suite)—Boellinist, Gothic suite)—Boellinist, Gothic suite)—Boellinist, Gothic suite, Gothic sui the Humoresque, Dvorak, for an encore; the Humoresque, Dvorak, for an encore; (Gothie suite)—Boellmann.

Mrs. Lyons sang Gounod's "Barcarolle" | Evening service—Organ prelude—"Mediwith a violin obligato played by Mrs.

Gusak, and as an encore the "Serenade" | Pleasant Chorus; offertory (quartet) |

by Gounod with violin obligato. Mrs. | "Blessed Are the Merciful," Hamer; orLyons also sang a group of songs by the gan postlude, "Marche des Girondins," |

Clark. | A musical program of unusual profess.

Mabel Linton, pianist; Miss Ethel Noble Johnson, soprano, and the Masurgia quartet, will give the musical program at the Central Presbyterian Church Tues-day night, when the congregation will celebrate the tenth anniversary of the pastor's tenure

Mrs. Ethel Holtzclaw Gawler, Miss Victoria Siddons and Mr. Harry Wheaton

The annual musical given by the Bolgiano class of Foundry M. E. Church, took place Friday night before a large and enthusiastic audience. The pro-gram, given entirely by members of the included a plano duet by the Short, and Stutz's reading, Miss Lillian Harig; mandolin solo, Mr. Piggin; songs by the mixed quartet; tenor solo, Mr. Ash; vocal duet, Mrs. Miner and Miss Edgar: contraito solo. Miss Edgar and songs by the male quartet co-Messrs. Lewis, Miner, Stuntz and

Members and guests of the Florida So clety were entertained with a musical, supplemented by readings, at its meeting Tuesday night, when Miss Louise Van Wagenen, soprano; Miss Ethel Noble Johnson, soprano; Mr. Morsell, Mr. Frank Duggan and Mr. Jarvis and Miss Alwarda gram. Mr. Morsell was heard in a group of character songs, Miss Van Wagenen Duggan in "A Dream." by Bartlett, and "Grey Days," by Johnson and Miss Ethel Noble Johnson, of Studio Hall in "Break of Day," by Sanderson and the "aninny Smuggle Song," by Smith.

At the Church of the Covenant this aftmented with other picture attractions and ernoon the music will be given by the special music will be rendered by the triple quartet and in the evening by the evening choir of 100 voices, with double quartet and four additional soloists, both services being under the direction of Sydney Lloyd Wrightson, with Harvey Mur-ray at the organ. The following are the Owen, and others. musical numbers AFTERNOON.

Mr. Backing.

'Yea, Though I Walk Through the Valley'... Incidental solo, Miss Jacoba Incidental solo, Miss Craig.
"I Will Give You Rest"...... Organ Prelude in G.

"O Lord, How Manifold Are Thy Works"... B
Base solo, "Be Thou With Me"...

Mr. Wilson.

The quartet of Trinity M. E. Church, under the direction of Mrs. Ada Arunde Pillow, will be heard this morning Bennett's anthem, "God Is a Spirit," of the rough and rugged mountaineers selection in keeping with the celebration and of life in the gold country, featuring Krank Keenan, Enid Markey and Robert McKim will be the headline attraction on Friday and Saturday. The "Grand Chorus," by Rogers. A more Robert McKim will be the headline attraction on Friday and Saturday. The auxiliary feature will be Fred Mace in Mack Sennett's Keystone comedy, "The Last Scent," a travesty upon the detection with the standard of today. Special musical and the terms of the standard of today. elaborate program has been arranged for tonight, including the anthem, "How tonight, including the anthem, "How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me?" by Pflueger,

"Fughetta," by Korner, and postlude "Grand Chorus," by Lemaigre.

An enjoyable entertainment was given by the Sarah St. Clair Chapter, D. A. R., by the Sarah St. Clair Chapter, D. A. R., under the personal management of Gertrude Lyons, last Saturday evening in Studio Hall, Connecticutt Avenue. Violin solo. Sonata, by Vivaldi; Indian Lament by Dvorak, rendered by Chesterd Da Follette; readings by Constance Goodman; interpretive dance, Janeiro Brooks; piano solo E minor Bolomanisc, MacDowell by Etta Schmidt.

Gertrude Lyons sang two songs by

The works of Bach, Handel, Haydn, 17.

John Bull, Scarlatti and William were especially attractive on the instrument, and the "Morris Dance," by Percy Grainand the "Morris Dance," by Percy Grainand the "Helbig and Mendelsson prizes, who ger, arranged for harpsichord by Miss Pelton-Jones closed the program, which was most unusual and delightful. The harpsichord was an exact reproduction of the eighteenth century instrument.

An elaborate musical program was given at the Pan-American Mass at St. Patrick's Church, Thanksgiving morning, by the Sanctuary Choir under R. Mills Silby, and the Senior choir of mixed voices under Miss Jennie Glennan, with Miss Marguerite Allen Ross at the organ.

Miss Marguerite Allen Ross at the organ, and the orchestral music as a special feature.

The Pleasant Congregational Church today. The Pleasant Chorus and solo quartet under the direction of Dr. William R.

(Gothic suite)-Boellmann.

A musical program of unusual variety A musical program of unusual variety formed an attractive feature of the recital given by pupils of the Mirabal School of Music, 1917 G street northwest, on Friday evening. The students were assisted by Mrs. Bleber, who rendered a soprano solo, "Angels' Serenade" (with violin obligato) (Braga); soprano solo, "An Irish Love Song" (Lang), Peggy C'Neill; baritone solo, "The Wonderland of Love" (Paul Felix), James Mulvey. The following program was also renddered: (a) Prelude in C sharp minor Webster Lodge h (Rachmaninoff), (b) Minuett in G (Paderewski), D. W. Swingle; valse Arabeique (McDowell), Miss Consuelo Beiber; ca-price Brilliante (Mendelssohn), Miss Estelle Amores, and nocturne Op. 9 (No. 2) Chopin) Miss Alberta Bicknell Madame Marie Von Unschuld has returned from a concert tour in Ohio, where she played with great success in several music centers.

THEATRICAL BRIEFS.

James Forbes, author of "The Chorus Lady," "The Traveling Salesman," "The Show Shop," and several other plays that have broken records for big receipts and good entertainments, has just completed a new play, entitled "A Woman of To-day." It was put into rehearsal by Sel-wyn and Company last week.

"Our Little Wife" has promptly caught the fancy of New York and settled down to a regular "Selwyn sell-out" run which promises to last for many months. In promises to last for many montas. In this connection Avery Hopwood's other play, "Fair and Warmer," which ran all last season in New York, is duplicating its success at the Cort Theater, Chicago, where it also sells out at every perform-Ed Wynn, of "The Passing Show of 1916," is writing a book called "Criticising Critics." He hastens to announce that ramatic critics are barred.

Selwyn and Company have in prepara-tion "The Longest Way 'Round," a new play by Edwin Milton Royle, author of "The Squaw Man" and many other suc-cesses. The cast for the preliminary cesses. The cast for the preliminal production includes Ruth Sinclair. Lo ise Randolph, Frances Savage, Edward Lynch, Walter Horton, Irma Lerner Kenyon Bishop, Betty Bellairs, Wallace

Ed Wynn, leading comedian of "The Passing Show of 1916," is a song writer of note, the popular songs which follow being credited to him: "My Queen Bess," "I'm Going to Get Myself a Black Salome," This Is No Place for a Minister's Son," "Somewhere but Where," and oth-

William Philbrick, of "The Passing Show of 1916," sells real estate in the sum-mer months at Freeport, Long Island. Edna Munsey, one of the Kelth attractions next week, posed for many or the allegorical and has relief figures on buildings at the Panama-Pac Beatrice Herford's repertoire here at Keith's will include "The Matinee supplemented by other caricatures in her inimitable style. John B. Hymer wrote "Maggie Taylor

Sings in "Ten Star" Series at the National GOSSIP OF FRATERNAL CIRCLES

Masonic Activities.

Although the election and installation of officers offers but little attraction for visiting members, King Solomon Lodge on Wednesday afternoon will deviate from the usual custom, and at the conclusion of the installation by Past Grand Master Lurtin R. Ginn, honorary member of the daylight lodge, this interesting speaker will have something to offer for the good and welfare of Masonry in general.

The Grotte.

Beginning with a banquet at 7:45 o'clock and ending with vaudeville at midnight, Kallipoli Grotto staged one of the most enjoyable ceremonials in its history at Odd Fellows' Hall last Monday evening.

The banquet was followed by a short business session and initiation ceremony. Monarch George H. Emmons, jr., intro-duced an innovation in having the banqueet an innovation in having the ban-quet precede the business entertainment, features. The band furnished an en-joyable program. Visitors were present from Brooklyn, N. Y.; Moline, Ill., and Baltimore, Md. The entertaining features were under di-

The leading number was a sketch entitled "The Burglar," the principal characters being prophets, Charles A. Stevens Charles D. Shackleford and Past Monarch John H. Shreve. Specialties were introduced by the principal and Prophet Andrew J. Walker and the Glass Club chorus. of Prophet Charles A. Stevens: A large class of candidates was initi-

The Grotto board announces an eyster

Eastern Star.

The 1910 Matrons' and Patrons' Asso tion, O. E. S., held a reunion on Friday evening, November 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phillips, near Brookland. The entertainment commit-tee presented a program consisting of several violin solos by Everett Phillips, the son of the hostess, and vocal solos by Milton J. Filius. Refreshments were served and a social evening followed. Those present were Past Grand Matron Hattle R. Hutchinson, Past Grand Patron Arthur M. Poynton, Associate Grand Patron James D. Rowen and Mrs. Rowen, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Frey, Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Fillius, Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Plumley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Camp bell, Mr. James S. Briggs, Miss Corinne Hay, Dr. and Mrs. D. P. Bush, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sebastian, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Hampton, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Gallo-way, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phillips.

Knights of Pythias.

LODGES.

Monday-Amaranth, No. 25, and Century, No. 30 business.

Tureday-Webster, No. 7, page and esquire ranks.

Excelsior, No. 14; Capital, No. 24, and Myrtle, No.

Wednesday-Mount Vernon, No. 5, and Equal, No. 17, business. 17, bosiness.
Thursday—Franklin, No. 2, business.
Friday—Syracusians, No. 10, caquire rank; Rathbone-Superiot, No. 29, business.
UNIFORM RANK.
Thursday—J. T. Coldwell Company, No. 7, monthly

PYTHIAN SISTERS.
Wednesday—Friendship Temple, No. 9, election of Priday—Rathbone Temple, No. 8, initiation.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

Saturday—Semi-monthly meeting.

The closing grand visitation of the year at Webster Lodge, No. 7, Tuesday night, was one of the largest in attendance and enthusiasm of the series. Grand Chancellor Dickman was given a royal reception in his own lodge, and his associate grand lodge officers shared in the hospitality. The reports of the grand lodge officers showed Webster Lodge to be exceedingly prosperous. The following informal program was rendered: Plano solo, W. F. Ruckert, of Webster Lodge; reception of Pythian sisters, who were present in large numbers; welcome to visitors, Grand Chancellor Dickman; solo, James K. Morton, of Webster Lodge to Mount Pleasant Lodge, No. 29, Fourteenth and Kenyon streets northwest, Degree Director Samuel G. Taylor will be in charge. Chief of Mount Pleasant Lodge, No. 29, Fourteenth and Kenyon streets northwest of his staff will be present.

The Odd Fellows.

The Odd Fellows. solo, James K. Morton, of Webster and Kenyon streets northwest, at the Lodge; remarks, Past Chancellor Ed-conclu-ward Saxton, who presented to the grand chancellor, on behalf of the lodge, fered. a piece of cut glass, the recipient re-sponding with much feeling to the token from his lodge; piano solo, W. F.

Refreshments and a social hour followed the exercises. Capital and held Monday evening, the Knights of Co-lumbus Dramatic Club entertained the wishtation in a body.

Webster Lodge has the page and Webster Lodge has the page and with a musical program.

At the last meeting of Potomac Council, held Monday evening, the Knights of Co-lumbus Dramatic Club entertained the members of the council and their friends with a musical program.

esquire ranks scheduled for Tuesday night, and the officers extend an invitation to the fraternity to be present.

C., supreme master of exchequer, and W. The Knights T. Hallowell, grand keeper of records entertained. and seal of North Carolina, were in the city recently for a brief visit, and were entertained by Grand Chancellor Dickentan. Mr. Meares expressed himself as cess both financially and socially.

by the supreme representatives from the exemplified the third degree of the order District—Mark Stearman and Albert Kahton a class of 100 candidates on Thanks lert—in making a presentation of a vet-giving Day in Baltimore. Lodge, No. 1, of Portland, Oreg., to John Barrett, director general of the Panheld Thursday evening, November 23, the American Union, at his office in this State deputy spoke, The annual "turkey city. When Messrs. Stearman and Kahlert were in attendance at the supreme lecturer, followed by a program of enter-lodge session last summer in Portland, Gus C. Mosher, of Ivanhoe Lodge, su-preme representative from Oregon, and chairman of the committee of arrange-ments for entertaining the supreme lodge, asked that this presentation be made to Mr. Barrett in recognition be his twenty-five years' manual control of feeling of appreciation of the gift his lodge and an eloquent approval of the principles of the order formerly was in newspaper California and Oregon.

Pythian Sisters.

Friendship Temple, No. 9, announces election of officers for its meeting Wednesday night. At the meeting last Wednesday night nomination of officers was held and a number of candidates initiated. Past Grand Chancellor John Phillips Meakin, a member of the temple, who has been quite ill, was reported as proving. The business session lowed by a social hour. The officers elected by Rathbone Temple, No. 8, Friday night will be installed publicly at the first meeting of the temple next month. The Past Chiefs' Association had as its hostess at the last meeting Mrs. Bertha Williams. Reports from the box party held recently showed the affair to have been a social and financial success. Following the usual custom of the associa tion, arrangements were made to send out Thanksgiving baskets to needy families The distribution was in charge of Mrs Bertha Prescott and Mrs. Minnie Wolfs heimer. After the transaction of business supper was served by the hostess. Those weith's will include "The Matinee Girl," supper was served by the hostess. Those "At the Ten Cent Store" and "The Hotel present were: Mrs. Carrie Davis, Mrs. Ida Child" supplemented by other carles and "A Comment of the Carrie Davis, Mrs. Ida Child" supplemented by other carles and "The Hotel present were: Mrs. Carrie Davis, Mrs. Ida M. Crown, Mrs. Etoile Melick, Mrs. Flor-ence David, Mrs. Elsie Vandervort, Mrs. Margaret Coffin, Mrs. Sara V. Darling, John B. Hymer wrote "Maggie Taylor-Waitress," with which Jean Adair is Minnie Wolfsheimer, Mrs. Roberta Pres-making a very favorable impression cott, Mrs. Lizzle Bassett, Mrs. Bertha around the Keith circuit. Williams, Mrs. Addie Freeman, Mrs. ravesty upon the detection of the forest Me?" by Pflueger, today. Special musical and the tenosolo, "Like as a Hart," by west. The organ selections will be rendered by the west of the we

Improved Order of Red Men.

CALENDAR.

Monday night—Onage Tribe, No. 6, business; Redring Tribe, No. 20, business.

Tuesday night—Idaho Tribe, No. 15, reports of committees; Waneta Council, No. 6, social and louiness.

business.

Wednesday night—White Eagle Tribe, No. 17, nominations of officers; Oscoola Tribe, No. 19, first degree; White Eagle Conucil, No. 4, business and actival. Thursday night-Logan Tribe, No. 8, visitation; Sioux Tribe, No. 18, adjournment to attend visita-ion.

Friday night-Seneca Tribe, No. 11, reports of nembership committees; Mincola Tribe, No. 14, nusiness; Idaho Council, No. 1, business. Logan Tribe, No. 8, is making prepa rations to entertain the great sachem and his staff of officers on Thursday

Idaho Tribe, No. 15, met on Tuesday night. The members attended Red-wing's visitation in a body. Great Senior Sagamore J. Heidenheimer, Great what proved to be the most unique visitation this year was held on Mon-day evening, when the great sachem and his staff of great chiefs paid Red-wing Tribe, No. 20, their annual visit. A. Kruse was chairman. L. H. Berg-man, of Osage Tribe, won a turkey. The unwritten work was exemplified by Thomas A. Dennis, of Logan Tribe. Remarks were made by C. W. Walker, H. F. Sheedy, Dr. W. S. Whitman, Reed F. Martin, R. Strobel, W. Osmond, J. A. Madison, F. N. Rensch, J. H. Yeabower, E. R. Boyer, D. J. Marvin, J. Heidenheimer and Great Prophet Bunch.

Invitation has been extended to the great sachem and members of the or-der to attend divine services in Douglas Memorial Church, Eleventh and H streets northeast, on Sunday evening, December 10. The members and their friends will assemble at the and their friends will assemble at the southwest corner of Twelfth and H streets at 7:30 o'clock. The pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. McLean, is a member of the order from Pennsyl-vania, and will preach a Redmen's tions, which were referred to the membership committee. The keeper of wampum of the tribe, W. E. Caywood, presented two of them, and J. Smoot presented the other.

Osceola Tribe had a good attendance at its last meeting, when the first de-gree was conferred on a candidate.

conclusion of which Noble Grand Charles to the W. Fitts announces a program will be of-

Knights of Columbus.

Council, held Tuesday evening, the an-Thomas D. Meares, of Wilmington, N. pervision of the lecturer, B. S. Lavins, c., supreme master of exchequer, and W. The Knights of Columbus Dramatic Club man. Mr. Meares expressed himself as enthusiastic for the Home Lodge, as outlined by the grand chancellor, and encouraged him in every way to institute such a lodge in this jurisdiction.

The Washington Third Degree Team, composed of Edward Kehoe, James F. Kehoe, James A. Sullivan, Matthew F. Myers, Edward F. Genoe, James P. O'Dea John Buckley and Leo A. Rove. A pleasing duty was performed Monday O'Dea, John Buckley and Leo A. Rove:

14. at Elks' Hall, the Order of Alhambra will produce an original sketch, followed by a roast beef dinner.

The smoker held Saturday evening at the Eagles' Hall by the nights of Columbus Bowling League was largely attended.

Daughters of America.

The State councilor, Mrs. Mamie Cox Howell, and her staff of officers, recently paid its annual fraternal visit to the hor council of the State councilor, Fideli Council, No. 4, Daughters of America. The State councilor was given a handsome leather traveling bag by Mrs. Julia Delano. A piano duet was rendered by the Misses Tiffey. Mrs. E. Viola Thompson was presented with a gold brooch by Mrs. Grace Woodward. A barytone solo was rendered by H. L. Anderson, past grand councilor. Mrs. Frances A. Brunagim was given a handbag by Harry Stowe, Mrs. Skinner recited Anna Hill was given a box of linen hand-kerchiefs by J. H. Howell. A tenor solo was rendered by J. H. Conor.

Mrs. Mary Ferguson presented the captain of the team, Capt. John West, with a cut glass fruit bowl. A recitation was given by Miss Owens. Mrs. N. G. presented the recording secretary J. H. Howell, with a pair of glove

Order of Eagles.

Five members were initiated at the last meeting. After the meeting all enjoyed a buffet lunch provided by the club a supper to the entertainment committee, followed by a program of music and talks

Royal Arcanum.

Grand Regent Frank S. Parks, with other officers of the Grand Council of this District, paid his annual official visit to Oriental Council, Royal Arcanum, last Tuesday evening in Old Masonic Temple. The principal address was delivered by Supreme Representative M. Bartow Mercer. Grand Regent Parks, Vice Grand Regent Chas, J. James, and Past Grand Regent Edwin A. Niess also spoke. Soprano solos were rendered by Mrs. E. Kulle.

Regent J. M. Hammerly presided at the Regent J. M. Hammerly presided at the business session.

Other officers of the Grand County Regents W. 1

Other officers of the Grand Council present were Past Grand Regents W. W. Chase and J. Ed. Swaine, Grand Secretary S. I. Besselievre, Grand Treasurer George M. Copenhaver, Grand Guide James W. Scott, Grand Trustee R. E. Logan, and Deputy Grand Regent James E. Thomas.

Kismet Council was represented by a committee composed of J. F. Brashears J. T. Whalen, H. C. Cole, J. Redding J. T. Whalen, H. C. Cole, J. Redding, and Thomas E. Cogan. Others present were Past Regents W. F. Ashford, H. G. Tegeler, and W. H. Duffy, and Corbin Birch, W. B. Hill, Henry Boddis, W. T. Moor, L. C. Morrison, E. G. King, J. F. Polley, W. A. Parsley, L. A. Johnson, F. L. Moreland, H. J. Davies, C. W. Sweeney, H. W. Woodward, S. J. Horan, J. G. Findley, C. W. Wood, L. W. Moore, G. F. Holtgren, Abram Frey, and W. H. C. Thompson.

Foresters of America.

At the last meeting of Court Washing no, No. 2, Foresters of America, the auditors notified the Chief Ranger that they were ready to audit the books of the officers. The Chief Ranger ordered that the books be put into their possessions.

that the books be put into their possession and the auditors stated they would report at the next meeting.

The entertainment committee announced that at the close of the initiatory ceremonies next meeting night, December 12, a buffet luncheon would be served, followed by a musical program.

Chief Ranger Watson announced that as the last meeting of the year is to be held December 12, nominantion and election of officers will be in order.

Maccabee Notes.

One candidate was initiated at the last meeting of National Tent, No. 1. After a short business meeting, the members and Seneca Tribe, No. 11, met on Friday their friends were entertained by the evening and received three applications, which were referred to the membership committee. The keeper Miss Selma Stelner, Sol Rockfield, Messra, and Silvarbara, and Black, Marcus, and Silverberg, and Mr.

Mount Vernon Tent, No. 4, held its at its last meeting, when the first degree was conferred on a candidate.

The secretary-treasurer of the Redmen's Bowling League, Charles O. Storm, has announced that there will be about sixty prises distributed at the end of the season. As only thirddegree members of the Redmen are cligible to play on the various teams, the league has been the sponsor for a beaded by their respective communication. the league has been the sponsor for a headed by their respective commanders, number of new members.

Lady Mrs. Elizabeth Cornish, of Columbia, and Lady Mrs. Taylor, of Mount

Lewis, of Mount Rainer.
The audience packed the large audi-Refreshments were served. It

Camp, No. 4046, Royal Neighbors of America. The guests were members of Lincoln Camp, Modern Woodmen, and The third floor of the temple others. was engaged for the evening and a program of unusual merit was enjoyed. The principal features were plano se-The principal features were plane se-lections by George Dixon Thompson; solos by Miss Flora Briggs and Willard Haynie, accompanied by Mrs. Jewel L. Downs; fancy dancing by Tereta Shaeffer, and a plane solo by Master Willie Crow. M. L. Grooms gave an Italian monologue and song, accom-panied on the plane by Mrs. Grooms. The banquet room was decorated with The banquet room was decorated with ferns and chysanthemums. The banquet was in charge of the Royal Neighbors of Martha Washington Camp. James W. Crooks acted as toastmaster and as past consul of Washington Camp welcomed the guests. Other speakers were Harry H. Helwig, of Washington party was need under direction of the R. Heiwig, of Washington Camp; J. lecturer, followed by a program of entertainment.

On Thanksgiving afternoon more than seventy-five couples partech of a tribute of the couples partech of a tribute of the couples are tributed in the couples ar half of Washington Camp, Capt. Harry A. Walsh, Van W. Roberds and Hirsh F. Sloat.

ing was enjoyed, the music was fur-nished by A. S. Cassell's orchestra. The committee in charge for the Royal

Neighbors was composed of Mesdames Ida B. Crooks, chairman; Ida M. Roberds, Mary L. Cochran, Mary A. Konitz, Anna F. Mahoney, Sofia Laddon and Miss S. Frances Boss, and on be-

National Union Councils. Thursday—W. H. Collins Council, Friday—National Capital Council, McKinley Council, Georgetown Council, Nonparell Council, Saturday—Columbia Council, Nonparell Council.

Scott Council met in Pythian Temple on Monday evening, with G. A. Lashorn in the chair. Secretary G. S. Livingston reported to the council the work being done by the Hospital Bed Fund Association. N. E. Washington Council met in Northeast Temple on Monday evening. President Mark Barnum, jr., directed Secretary Henry L. Jenkins to notify the members of the election of officers to take Bancroft Council met at Typographical Temple last Thursday evening. The election of officers will take place at the meeting to be held on December 28.

Dahlgren Council met on Thursday evening. Financial Secretary O. W. Hammond, representative of the banquet and hospital bed fund associations, gave

ing. After the meeting all en-unfet lunch provided by the club Brother Rupertus.

last the Ladies Auxiliary gave to the entertainment committee. present. District Manager J. E. Kerr spoke on the work being done in Wash-ington. Former President Frank T. Fer-At the meeting on December 7, officers will be elected for the coming year. There are a number of candidates in the field and an exciting contest is promised.

Rosenberg.
Election of officers for the ensuing year will take place tomorrow night.

torium. was the finest social event of the season in the Maccabee circles in this city

Modern Woodmen of America